

Crafts in the Zuiderzee Museum alive and kicking 2011 is going to be the Year of Action

The theme of the Zuiderzee Museum will be the Year of Action in 2011. Without effort, everyone can become acquainted with traditional crafts of the Zuiderzee region. For rope or barrel making, or basket weaving: sleeves will be rolled up in the Museum Park from April to October. In wonderful presentations, the Zuiderzee Museum is also going to show what happened to traditional trades before and after the Zuiderzee was dammed. Many crafts are alive and kicking to this very day, as visitors to our Museum will find out.

About the Zuiderzee Museum

The Zuiderzee Museum in Enkhuizen focuses on the art, culture and heritage of the region around the former Zuiderzee and the present and future IJsselmeer region. The Museum has an international allure and visitors from many countries because of its activities, signature approach and forms of co-operation.

Communities, crafts and water are central. The Museum is proud to present a beautiful open-air collection in the Museum Park and in addition the main Museum building has a large number of exhibition rooms for permanent and temporary expositions. Besides the Museum compiles presentations in this country and abroad on a regular basis. For further information please go to www.zuiderzeemuseum.nl
