

Cake for the winners of the drawing competition

Yesterday afternoon (at 15.30) illustrator Thé Tjong-Khing give six of his books, each containing a personal illustration, and three birthday parties to the prizewinners of the drawing competition organized in the context of the Zuiderzee with Cake exhibition.

In fact, the Zuiderzee Museum had organized two different drawing competitions: 'What would I like to be when I grow up?' and a colouring page action in conjunction with DEEN supermarkets. After the prizes had been awarded, the winners, their parents and grandparents could enjoy real cake with lemonade.

About the Zuiderzee Museum

The Zuiderzee Museum in Enkhuizen is oriented toward art, culture and heritage around the former Zuiderzee area and the present and future IJsselmeer. As a result of its activities, approach and co-operation, the Museum has generated international allure and a broad public reach.

Communities, crafts and water are the central features. The Museum consists of an open-air collection in the form of an outdoor museum, and an indoor museum with a large number of exhibition areas for the presentation of the permanent collection and for temporary exhibitions. In addition, the Museum organizes regular presentations at home and abroad.
